

IECES INLAND EMPIRE COUNCIL OF ENGINEERS AND SCIENTISTS

Presents

“Outlook of the Inland Empire and its Infrastructure. What’s in store for us?”

John Husing, Ph.D.

Listed by the L.A. Times Magazine in August 2006 as
 One of the 100 most powerful people shaping life in Southern California

The Inland Empire has been and will be the center of a good deal of Southern California's population, housing, and job growth for the next two decades. This implies enormous infrastructure challenges when one looks at the home production, the movement of goods and the building of offices in the region. Dr. Husing will present his information and forecast for the future of the Inland Empire.
