President's Message

To our Portland Post Team,

I share the belief that our society and professional engineering organizations like ours play an extremely important role as our Nation's infrastructure ages and may serve as that voice with the American public that we need to grow competent and able scientists and engineers from our youth here at home to take on daunting challenges over the next hundred years. In spite of the difficult financial environment, we must make the necessary investments in our infrastructure in order to remain a secure and economically prosperous nation and to continue to enjoy the freedoms we cherish so dearly. The Portland Post of Society of American Military Engineers stands ready to answer that call here in the northwest region of our great country and is dedicated to our National Defense.

I encourage each member, military, civilian and corporate, to get engaged in "your" Post to help us make a difference in reaching our vision and goals. Increasing our membership, reaching out to the next generation of engineers and scientists and developing an exciting monthly program are just a few of our goals that need everyone's involvement.

Everyone is a SAME recruiter. I challenge each of you to share your pride in the Society wherever you go. As you interact with others across our region, be ready to quickly convey the positive and constructive benefits of being part of SAME.

Top five benefits of SAME Membership that we need to share:

- Expand your professional development and personal growth
- Share your experience and enthusiasm with other engineers and the community
- Direct access to Leadership of all the Uniformed Services
- Direct access to Engineering and Construction Industry Leadership
- Be part of a network of individuals with like interests and common threads which become part of your personal and professional family.

I want to thank you for all you do for this great Post. Portland Post has pride and character. Your membership and leadership is vital to growing a strong and vibrant Post here in Portland. I am honored to serve as your President and look forward to continuing the journey of engineering excellence.

John Eisenhower, P.E.

Lieutenant General Itschner Scholarship

Emerson Charles Itschner was born on July 1, 1903 in Chicago, Illinois. His distinguished career began with graduation from the U.S. Military Academy in 1924. He obtained a degree in civil engineering from Cornell University in 1926. His early service consisted of a variety of assignments including field engineer with the Alaska Road Commission, Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics at the Missouri School of Mines, and Resident Engineer with the St. Louis Engineer District.

Following World War II, he supervised post war reconstruction in the Philippines. He then served as District Engineer in Seattle and Senior Engineer of I Corps in Korea. General Itschner served as North Pacific Division Engineer in Portland, Oregon from 1952 to 1953. In that assignment, he was in charge of the civil works and military programs of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Western Montana and Alaska.

On October 1, 1956, General Itschner became Chief of Engineers, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. He was the youngest officer in more than a century to be appointed head of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. He served in that capacity until his retirement in 1961. His honors and awards include the prestigious Army Engineer Association Gold de Fleury medal, Croix de Guerre with Palm, L'Order de Leopold, British Empire Medal, Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit with two Oak Leaf Clusters, Bronze Star Medal and Purple Heart.

He spent his retirement in Portland, Oregon, until his passing in 1995. Throughout that time, he was an ardent and constant supporter of the Portland Post, Society of American Military Engineers.

To permanently honor this great military and engineering leader, the Portland Post established an endowed scholarship in August 1995 in the College of Engineering, Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon. Receipt of this annual scholarship requires demonstration of high scholastic achievement, active participation in one of the Oregon State University ROTCs, and demonstration of leadership potential, thereby honoring General Itschner's belief in the value of talented professionals who can build and maintain the important professional relationship needed between the military and private industry to best serve our country.
